October 23—Gibbs Garden Day Trip

8:00 am—5:30 pm Cost $25 and Lunch OYO

Located in North Georgia the Manor House and Gardens are on 200 acres of existing natural woodlands. All walks traverse the slopes allowing visitors to view the myriad colors of Fall as one enormous garden. Maple trees, dogwoods, crape myrtle, and companion plants complete the autumn color. Japanese Maples, planted in the hundreds each year, continue a tradition of adding new and exciting colors. Their Japanese Garden is the largest in the US. Also blooming in October are the 140 varieties of water lilies, wildflowers, roses and some hydrangeas. Lunch will be on your own at the garden. Cost includes tram service across the gardens.
